

Expression of Interest: Coaching Association of Canada's International Programs Seeking Content Experts

The Coaching Association of Canada (CAC) is inviting expressions of interest from experienced professionals to join our ongoing talent pool of expert presenters for current and future international initiatives.

CAC partners with organizations worldwide to design and deliver customized coach development programs aligned with long-term athlete development stages. Our work includes in-person and online delivery formats tailored to the unique needs of sport organizations, coaches, and athletes globally.

We are seeking individuals with strong coach development content area(s) of expertise (but not limited to):

- International facilitation experience
- Sport development expertise (domestic & international)
- International coaching experience (e.g., Olympic/Paralympic Games, World Championships, high-performance events)
- Strong public speaking skills

Please note: Joining the talent pool does not guarantee a specific project or volume of work. Opportunities will be matched based on best fit for each project. Honorariums will be provided and outlined in a service agreement prior to engagement.

If you are interested in contributing your expertise to CAC's International Programs, please complete our intake survey:

Content Expert-Questionnaire – Fill out form

Please note, this request in no way represents a commitment to volume of delivery, or to any specific project. We will determine best fit on a project-by-project basis. Honorariums will be provided and will be noted in a service agreement to be signed prior to any project.

Questions can be directed to Wayne Parro, Director of International Programs at wparro@coach.ca.